

Art Appreciation

Dates:

Locations:

History of Art for all. An exciting new course for the Pimlico Centre introduces you to the history of art. Artist and lecturer John Timberlake will explain what to look for when viewing art and will help you experience art at a deeper and more enriching level. On this course, you will develop background knowledge, hone skills to make connections between works and artists, and discover the joy of experiencing the wonder of great art. Join us for this local course that comprises classroom-based sessions and a final session as a guided visit to the Tate Britain or other place of art.

Entry Requirements

Open to all. No previous experience necessary.

What topics does the course cover?

Explores art of the last 100 years.

How will I be taught and assessed?

In classroom, with a final session guided visit to an art gallery or museum. There is no formal qualification.

Are there any other costs or equipment I need to get?

Travel costs to art gallery visit for the final session. No equipment necessary.

By the end of the course what should I be able to do?

You will have a deeper appreciation of famous artists and their art and have the confidence to visit cultural places on your own.

What are the progression opportunities following this course?

You can join further community courses.