Communication Skills: Confident Presenting

Dates: 02/02/2027
Locations: Lisson Grove Centre

Transform the way you present to an audience. Whether speaking to a small community group, contributing in a team meeting, or presenting a formal talk, this course gives you the practical tools to structure your narrative, hold your listeners' attention, and deliver your message with poise and authority. You will learn how to channel nervous energy productively and present ideas with clarity and impact.

Entry Requirements

Minimum English level Entry 3 / Level 1 (E3/L1). Suitable for complete beginners or anyone wanting to overcome presentation anxiety and refine their speaking style.

What topics does the course cover?

Instruction covers how to give engaging presentations, narrative structure and how to organise key points logically, and conclude memorably. You will learn physical techniques to manage nerves, project vocal warmth and volume, and use open body language to build rapport. The course also explores how to field questions smoothly and to adapt presentations for different audience needs.

How will I be taught and assessed?

Delivered through highly practical, supportive workshops. You will participate in mini-talks, vocal warm-ups, and receive encouraging, personalised feedback from your tutor in a safe classroom environment.

Are there any other costs or equipment I need to get?

The full course fee is £40 for all regardless of status.

By the end of the course what should I be able to do?

You will gain the confidence to stand up and speak before a group, a structured method for designing concise presentations, and practical delivery habits to keep your audience engaged from start to finish.

What are the progression opportunities following this course?

Progress onto Communication Skills: Confident Meetings & On-Screen Presence, Career-Ready English: Effective Communication, or vocational courses at WAES.
